Bob has an attitude problem. When he finds his main squeeze Bunny at war with her best friend, Betty in a clothes-shredding, flesh-ripping cat-fight, Bob sides with Betty, then forces his attentions upon her (like right into her mouth). Bunny escapes and Bob forces Betty to finish what Bunny had started.

Bunny, bruised in body but strong of heart, enrolls for martial arts training with the brutal Babs Berkowitz, "Wrestling Coach to the Stars." Bab's powerful arms and thighs, not to mention her lightening tongue, teach Bunny more than wrestling.

SAVAGE SISTERS

The Stewardess Association was strictly a social organization composed of all stewardesses and former stewardesses of the various airlines who lived and worked in the Kansas City area. It consisted of about forty active and outgoing young women and thus functioned almost like a sorority. As Rhonda and Eva were to be permanently based in Kansas City as their first assignment, they were eager to join the Association.

At the first social event, a cocktail party at a downtown hotel, which reminded the girls of a sorority rush party, both Eva and Rhonda agreed to join the Association. It was only a few minutes later that they were informed that they would be initiated into the organization next Friday evening.

The procedure of initiation was explained by the chuckling President of the Association, with a background of giggles from the members surrounding her. Rhonda and Eva smiled at each other with a feeling of insouciance and allowed their drink glasses to be re-filled.

"What do you think they'll do to us at the initiation tonight?" asked Eva, Rhonda's tall, brown-eyed roommate with long straight black hair that hung half-way down her back, as the girls approached such activity the following Friday!

"Oh, just a lot of silly nonsense, I imagine," replied Rhonda, as the two young stewardesses reached the address where the initiation ceremony was to be held and parked the car. "Sounds like kid-stuff to me, but I'm going along with it all the same. I guess it will be sort of like a college sorority hazing. You were in a sorority in college weren't you, Eva?"

"Yeah," replied the slender beauty, as the pair exited their car and approached the large old house in the northern part of the city. Three stewardesses who flew for Middle American Airlines rented the ancient, but spacious, house which had been chosen for tonight's hazing of Rhonda, Eva, and two other gals. "I sure was and I can remember not being able to sit too comfortably the day after Hell Night, too!" All the paddling! Whew!"

"Oh, don't worry about that sort of rough stuff" laughed Rhonda. "I'm sure we'll have none of that. Well, here we are at the door."

The two new stewardesses entered to find about thirty active members of the Association assembled and in casual dress. The two other initiates like Eva and Rhonda were dressed in old Levis and T-shirts. There was an air of frivolity about the house. It was soon announced that the initiation would be conducted in the big game room in the basement and that the actives should go down to the gameroom and await the initiates who would be blindfolded and conducted down by the initiation chairman, none other than the self defense instructor at the Great Plains Stewardess College, Joan Carson.

Eva turned and looked at her roommate quizzically. Rhonda grinned as if to say "So What?" but could not help but feel a bit uneasy to now be in the hands of her old instructor, the hard-boiled redhead with whom she had not exactly gotten off on the right foot with a couple of weeks ago. Oh, well, what could happen? Besides, it's too late to back out now, Joan Carson or no Joan Carson, reasoned the pretty brunette to herself.

As the other women laughingly exited to the basement, Joan approached carrying blindfolds in her left hand and a heavy looking, plain wooden paddle in the other. The paddle was rather silly looking with "STEWARDESSES ASSOCIATION" painted in bright red letters on one side and emblems of all the airlines represented by the Association members painted on the other. The redhead was patting her right leg with the stingy looking wooden instrument and smiling a coy smile at Rhonda.

"No paddling, huh?" said the slender, but voluptuously shaped Eva to her roommate.

"Purely for psychological effect, I'm sure," replied Rhonda, simulating confidence.

Joan lost no time in orienting and blindfolding her four charges and leading them, as they held tightly to the belt loops of the gal in front of them.

Now the good natured fun began. The roughhouse ceremony was much like a sorority initiation with which the initiates were familiar. The foursome were made to swallow raw oysters on a thread and had their hair massaged with raw eggs and sugar and were even subjected to a mock branding with ice cubes. To test their reactions and discourage any recalcitrance to the throes of the ceremony, the paddle was wielded by Joan's strong right arm.

Now the four initiates were told that when the signal "Emergency" was given, they would have to scramble for a neutral corner of the room while still blindfolded. Such caused much awkward and confused motion to the amusement of the actives and trauma of the hazing victims, who were told that the last one to find cover would be warmly rewarded by the paddle as encouragement to move more swiftly on subsequent drills.

Poor Rhonda was last. She was summoned to the middle of the room by Joan and forced to bend over and grasp her ankles. The smiling redhead took aim and applied the heavy paddle three times in ferocious succession. Many of the onlooking actives whistled in reaction as thought the playful swats were applied with more gusto than usual in this type of initiation.

"That will teach you to move more quickly, neophyte!" said Joan, sternly, as Rhonda briskly rubbed her well warmed Levi pants seat and then resumed her place with the other three initiates.

In the next two drills, poor Eva was the last to find refuge and consequently both times received the playful penalty paddling at the hands of Joan. Less well padded than her roommate, the slender beauty squirmed a bit in reaction, but it was obvious to all that neither Eva nor the other two initiates had been whacked so hard with the paddle as had Rhonda.

The initiation finale now consisted of the four harrassed young stewardesses having to kneel before a small table and receive a "sacrifice" in honor of the "Flight Goddess". That meant simply swallowing pieces of raw liver. As soon as the onerous task was performed Joan ordered the four to bend across the table and receive the "Benediction" from their new sisters.

This little ceremony, the only really painful portion of the hazing ordeal, consisting of allowing each of the thirty actives to walk behind the four vulnerable backsides and apply the paddle in congratulatory fashion to each. For this ritual paddling, the neophytes were allowed to remove their blindfolds and thus know just who applied the hard wooden paddle.

Each gal applied her swat to the tightly jean clad bottoms of the future Association sisters and then simply handed the paddle to the next one in line to repeat the procedure. Some of the fun loving distaff paddlers, of course, applied the burning wood harder than others, but most of the licks were playful and not too hard. Yet, all four neophytes' shapely bottoms weee tingling pretty well when Joan, the last member of the line finally took her turn.

The red haired initiation chairman laid on her swats with gusto and really made the basement ring with resounding splats from the paddle as she laid on the final accolades which made the four neophytes full members of the Stewardess Association.

Rhonda was the last in the formation. Of course, Joan have her the hardest wallop of all, but did not stop there.

"On your feet, Neophyte," ordered the hard boiled redhead remembering the wrestling affair a couple of weeks ago. "I'm afraid you need more help in swallowing your sacrifice to the Flight Goddess. I could, of course, pat you on the back like burping a baby, but I believe it will do you more good to bend over and let me offer a bit more aid with the paddle."

Rubbing her tingling cheeks, Rhonda slowly rose to her feet and calmly did as ordered. She thought it a bit unfair that she was to be singled out for more paddling than the other girls in what was supposed to be simply good natured fun. Yet, the beautiful brunette kept her cool.

"Whack! Whack! Whack!" Three times in succession the paddle contacted Rhonda's shapely buttocks with the hardest force with which it had been applied all evening. The rest of the young women assembled looked about at each other with questioning expressions, as Rhonda stoically suppressed her emotions with barely audible "ouches".

"Keep those hands on your ankles, neophyte!" snapped Joan as Rhonda almost rose once more to an erect position. "I've just about begun to teach you some lessons in humility and manners. You've got some more swats coming. So assume the angle and bend back over again."

"The hell I will!" snapped the young beauty with her blue eyes flashing. With that remark Rhonda sprang to her full height, snatched the paddle out of the hand of the surprised redhead, and tossed it to the far corner of the room with a resounding clatter.

Without another word or threat, the two women went for hands full of hair and were within seconds off balance and flat on the floor. Over and over they rolled on the linoleum covered game room floor with neither gaining an apparent advantage, but with both doing plenty of damage. Knees and elbows got into the action as well as both fiery ladies tried to work herself atop her opponent and effect a pinning hold.

"If there's any more unusual rump blistering tonight, honey, it's your rump that's going to get it!" threatened Rhonda, quickly shifting her strategy from hair pulling to strangling headlock, thereby breaking Joan's hold on her hair as well.

"Do it and then talk about it, sister!" snapped Joan in reply as she landed a solid kidney punch to her tormentor. "I'm gonna ram that paddle somewhere real uncomfortable for you when I get through mopping up the linoleum with your cute body!"

"Well you do it and then talk about it to follow your own advice, sweetie!" Rhonda replied, as she gleefully gave her opponent a Herculean toss from the headlock position and sent her skidding across the floor and across the back of the sofa.

Rhonda rushed to follow up on her advantage, but was too late. The agile Joan managed to balance herself with her hands on the back of the sofa and meet the charging brunette with both feet vigorously thrust forward.

The impact of her adversary's forward kick sent Rhonda staggering backward. Joan swiftly followed up with a smashing body block that sent the brunette in an even further backward stumbling motion and then flat to the linoleum looking like a tree felled by an axe.

The rest of the ladies of the Stewardesses Association stood back and watched in confusion and amazement. Nobody really seemed willing to intervene. A few vocal protests were made, but most of these assembled felt that Joan had brought the attack on herself and that the prudent course of action might be simply to let the two female wildcats work the hostilities out of their systems.

Laying flat on her back now, Rhonda, apparently did a bit of bluffing. For as Joan sprung forward to fall atop her downed adversary with an intended body press, the brunette adroitly rolled out of the way and allowed the angered redhead to simply fall on her face.

"Surprise, Red!" teased Rhonda, springing upward and now trying a new course of attack, by grabbing the prostrate redhead's right ankle and leaning back into something of a single Boston Crab hold. "Now, let's see you twist and groan a bit yourself!"

Twist and groan Joan Did! In actual fact, to such a degree that Rhonda was unable to keep her hold intact, at least with enough force to really mete out any punishment over to her opponent.

"Well, we'll see if this maneuver is in your self defense agenda," announced Rhonda now rising out of her sitting position atop her victim and converting the crab hold into a more easily manageable step over toe hold.

Joan continued to groan in protest of the painful pressure still exerted on her leg as Rhonda twisted the captive limb with all the pressure available to her. However, the brunette rather negligently forgot that her adversary had another leg that was still free. Violently Joan kicked with all the force she could muster in her left leg!

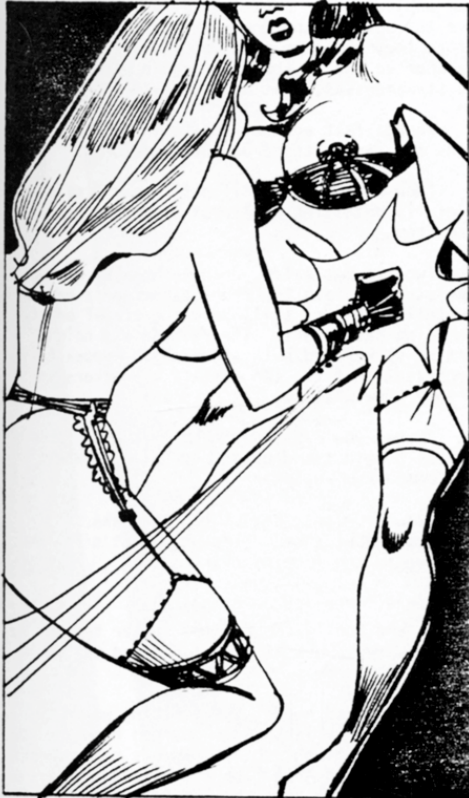

"Here's one from the manual, speaking of self defense," announced the frantic redhead as her wild kick found its mark squarely on the buttocks of her tormentor and followed through with a hard driving and pushing movement!

The hard contact of the kick against Rhonda's tender backside not only threw the brunette off balance, but shocked her into relinquishing her hold on her opponent's ankle as well.

Like a blacksmith who had just been kicked by a recalcitrant horse while holding a hoof, Rhonda sprawled forward and hit the floor again. Both women scrambled to their feet once more and were immediately entwined with mutual headlocks.

However, by now, Tommie Collins, blonde haired President of the Association and a couple of others felt the fracas had gone on long enough. Through the combined efforts of five or six ladies, the snarling and enraged pair were finally separated.

"Okay, ladies, enough is enough," stated Tommie, "and I believe that what started out to be a good natured bit of fun has turned into a brawl. All right, Rhonda you're a full fledged member of the Association now, but I hope your relations with your fellow members will be a bit more cordial in the future. Why don't you two just shake hands now and make up?"

Reluctantly, Rhonda and Joan did shake hands and acquiesced to a sort of truce. However, the brunette was not willing to forgive and forget. She would even up the score yet with Joan Carson for the painful and humiliating paddling to which the vindictive redhead had subjected her.

The opportunity presented itself within two weeks. Rhonda found herself assigned to an early morning flight to New York. Who should the senior stewardess on the flight be, but Joan Carson. The two beautiful stewardesses glared uneasily at each other.

However, after breakfast was served and the two other stewardesses had gone into the pilot's cabin temporarily, Rhonda saw Joan enter the kitchen at the rear of the plane. There was presently a lull in the stewardesses' duties just now. It seemed to the pretty brunette that now could be a good time to confront her adversary.

Stealthily, the brunette opened the door to the kitchen just wide enough to see the pretty redhead bending forward with her shapely backside about six inches from the door. An irresistible impulse suddenly hit Rhonda. She quietly grasped the door, pulled it toward her a few inches and then deliberately slammed it forward with a resounding thump against Joan's backside.

The startled redhead reacted with an oath and bolted forward to her knees in reaction to the weight of the swinging door. Joan was not hurt from being knocked off balance, but sprang to her feet strongly annoyed.

"I might have known you would try something stupid like that!" snapped the redhead. "Guess you've still got a chip on your shoulder for me haven't you, Rhonda? Well, there isn't much room on here but if you want to have it out, then I guess this is as good a place as any."

Rhonda seemed in agreement, without even removing their uniform coats, the two beautiful stewardesses were at it once more. Joan delivered a hard slap across Rhonda's left cheek and the brunette responded in kind. Both then attempted to do a bit of hair pulling, but defensive parries against such caused headlocks to really result instead.

The two distaff brawlers now reeled from one end of the small kitchen to the other, indiscriminately banging against the sink, walls and cabinets. Both were applying as much pressure as possible to the neck of the other and both were weaving off and on balance, but managed to keep an unsteady balance. Suddenly both hit the floor and the indecisive shoving, tugging, and struggling for advantage continued.

Now Rhonda seemed to gain the upper hand. She emerged atop her opponent and attempted to choke the fallen Joan by throttling the redhead's throat with both hands.

"Like the color of your face just now, Joanie," teased the brunette as she tightly dug in her punished fingers and thumbs about the redhead's thorax. "It's about the same crimson color as my butt was after your friendly initiation paddling action a couple of weeks ago!"

The choking Joan could hardly reply, but she could still fight back. Her response was a violent bucking action of the torso coupled with knee action. Suddenly she managed to force both knees tightly about her opponent's rib cage and then thrust upward. Like a cork being extracted from a bottle, Rhonda was literally lifted from her victim's waist and dumped on her back on the floor.

Coughing and quickly rubbing her constricted throat, Joan sprang over to her knees to meet Rhonda in the same position. The two stewardesses now locked hands in an attempt to force the opponent to the floor. However, this maneuver failed to provide an advantage for either, so both quickly released their interlocked palms and settled for bear hugs around the rib cages instead.

Once more the two belligerent stewardesses began to roll and tumble about the floor with curses, attempted bites and scratching action. Both parried equally and the limited size of their arena may have mitigated the scope of the brawl. Suddenly an announcement from the pilot caused both of the distaff combatants to freeze into position.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, this is Captain Douglas speaking. I regret to announce the attempted hijack of the plane by the two ladies in the first class section. However, as they are armed, please remain calm and stay in your seats." droned the familiar voice of the captain.

Without a word, Rhonda and Joan released each other and sprang to their feet. Checking the closed circuit TV screen the kitchen they now saw clearly the two women to which the pilot had just referred. Both appeared to be from the Middle East. The tall one holding a pistol, was of large, Junoesque stature with green eyes, a rather pretty face, but with prominent nose and lips. Her companion was shorter, shapely, and had a pretty oval face setting off black eyes and hair.

"Listen, Rhonda" admonished Joan, "I don't like you and I know the feeling is mutual, but if you're willing to cooperate with me, we can break up this little attempted hijack. Now there's some risk involved, but if we succeed we will have done a great day's work for the airline and will get some nice publicity for ourselves as well. I know you have the ability and the guts to carry it out, so before they remember that you and I are still unaccounted for in the front cabin with the other two stewardesses, what do you say?"

Rhonda fast agreed and the two girls shook hands and straightened up their uniforms.

"Now here's how we'll put it off," said Joan, carefully detailing a plan of action to her new coadjutor.

Two minutes later, Joan followed by Rhonda came striding into the front passenger area where the tall Arab girl still held the pistol on the trembling passengers. The redhead was holding a Martini shaker and both stewardesses appeared so nonchalant that the two distaff hi-jackers wondered if they knew what was taking place.

"Maha, you'd better check these two for weapons," said the shorter companion. "Where did they come from anyhow?"

"You're right, Rose," replied Maha. "I'd forgotten about them. Okay, red, let's see what you have in the martini shaker."

"Sure!" replied Joan, casually. The redhead quickly and coolly removed the shaker top and dashed boiling water above Maha's right hand that held the pistol!

As Joan had hoped, the scalding water caused Maha to react by jerking her burned hand and gun upward. In a flash, the courageous redhead wrested the gun from the Arab lass and tossed it over her shoulder directly into the lap of a surprised, but resourceful passenger who quickly covered the hijackers.

"Take the other one, Rhonda" ordered Joan as she hung onto her big adversary's arm and then forced her to her knees with a hammer lock.

Rhonda did as ordered. A series of rabbit punches and body slams quickly took any resistance out of the pretty Rose. Now assured that her opponent had no weapon on hand, Rhonda settled for holding her in tow with a tight headlock.

Joan managed the same on Maha after forcing the big, sultry gal to the floor and pinning her until the debilitating headlock could be applied. Now the two bold stewardesses faced each other with their captive victims.

"How about a good banging together of heads, like they do in the wrestling matches on TV?" suggested Rhonda.

Joan was all in favor. Driving forward the two stewardesses banged the skulls of the distaff hijackers together with an audible crack to the amusement of the passengers and in the promotion of extra security.

"Too bad that we don't have the old Stewardess Association paddle on hand, Joanie," chuckled Rhonda. "We could really give these gals a lesson against hi-jacking!"

"Anything wrong with our palms?" replied Joan as the stewardesses kept tight hold on their quarry.

Within seconds the aggressive stewardesses had the two distaff hijackers across their laps and were administering sound spankings to the amusement of the passengers who crowded around to watch.

"See folks this is better entertainment than the movie any day and it looks like things are coming out just as well in

CINDY MOUNTS PAM

GGC-183 — VIDEO CASSETTE ONE HOUR — $79.00 "WRESTLING AMATEURS"

Some of our sexiest girls go to the mat in this rough and tough display of female combat. First we see small blonde Cindy in a black bikini against gorgeous Pam in pink. Cindy tries to prove that spirit and determination can make up for her lack of size and strength. Her squeaky little voice is a refreshing contrast to Pam's deeper moans of distress. The verbal exchange between these two is worth the price of the tape! In the second match tiny Jill in black battles with blonde Les in pink. The ferocity of this fight intensifies as the girls verbally and physically abuse each other. Their bodies are truly battered and bruised in this angry onslaught. A humiliating end comes when one loser whines and begs for mercy. In the final bout California blonde Robin in pink does combat with tiny Cindy in a leopard print. Cindy is cruisin' for a bruisin' as she confidently taunts her larger opponent. Neck scissors, hair pulling, and choking don't seem to wear down these two bundles of dynamite in this never ending battle. The end finally comes as one girl is tortured well beyond the point of submission. Definitely three of the most unusual and dynamic catfights ever filmed.

SPICE TRAPS RENEE

KELLY ON SHELLY

Another four match spectacular of over an hour's worth of the finest and sexiest battling ever, with three more topless battles. The first match features blue bikini'd Spice in a brutal battle with the voluptuous blonde star of our last supplement, the beautiful Renee. In her candy striped bikini, Renee may as well be topless, for no ordinary top can hide the huge mammaries that belong to this tiger. These two athletic and beautiful girls show you many pro moves, as first one girl and then the other gain advantage. You can feel the animosity in the middle of the ring, as these two strongest girls in our stable clash for supremacy. After this classic bout you will be treated to three of the wildest topless melees you will ever see. Red outfitted Kelly tangles with tough blonde Shelly in a choke filled topless tangle that will leave you breathless in its ferocity. Then huge busted Connie finds out that blue bikini'd Teri is really a feline animal in disguise. Teri's bare breasted brutality surprises Connie and the large chested one strikes back to shock the beautifully athletic newcomer. Wait to see this finish! Our fourth bout features blonde Debbie, in a chain outfit with demure Jill, in a white wrap bikini. The dominant Debbie is out to destroy the petite but well built brunette, but is soon bare to the waist herself. A shocking end to this match occurs when the loser is bare-assed as well in a super humiliating ending. Four action packed sexy matches by the most beautiful and fit girls in wrestling. Again, a super value for just over $20.00 a match!

“CUSTOM CLASHES”

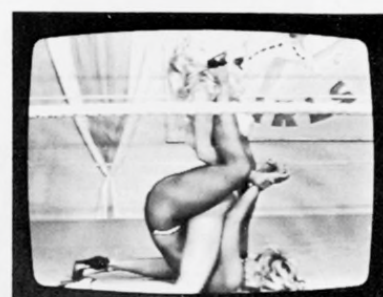

Two unusual custom matches taped for individual collectors will provide you with the bizarre in this special interest tape. First, Sue in a yellow bikini faces Pam in black as both girls wrestle the entire match in high heels! Handicapped by their spiked heels they still manage some fierce wrestling and the match is highlighted by severe body punching throughout. Can you imagine two body punching gorgeous blondes in heels fighting in a real ring? Well to top it off the exhausted loser is handcuffed to the ring post to end this unusual match. If that match wasn't enough, Blonde Robin then tangles with long haired Kat in another special bout for one of our customers. The long haired Kat (whose hair hangs almost to her knees) is dominated by the sexy blonde Robin throughout the match and Robin even uses Kat's hair as a weapon against her. The devastated loser is dragged to center ring where Robin proceeds to humiliate her in the worst way possible. We can't tell you how this match ends for it will shock some of you and amuse others. If you are searching for something different in female combat, this is the video for you. Maybe you, too, could have your fighting fantasy produced for only you, just as these two collectors have done. Write for details of our custom films after you view this one.

"ONSLAUGHT"

This tape features a violent half hour topless tag melee and then two bikini battles featuring gorgeous blondes. The blue & white striped duo of tough Shelly and spirited Stevie battle pale suited Terry and Mindy. What a holocaust as a pair of beautiful busts are soon banging around the mat. Shelly is her usual self and her partner soon mimics her savage tactics. The gorgeous dark haired girls gang up on Stevie at one point before Shelly can rescue her. Mindy suffered a broken nose during this match, and after viewing the action, you'll see why. The second match puts blonde Sue in a canary bikini against honey blonde and black outfitted Leora. The small newcomer proves to be a wildcat in disguise and whips golden blonde Sue in a savage beating. During this one-sided match Leora swings Sue and drops her, leaving Sue half-conscious. Then she seems to delight in further battering our perfectly proportioned blonde. The third match features the return of gorgeous Kim in a black and white bikini against red outfitted buxom Shannon. Kim hasn't forgotten her ring savvy in her return, but never has faced so powerful an opponent as Shannon. Many good holds in this all out contest. This 60 minute tape will be an all time favorite.

"10 GIRL TAG"

A ten girl tag riot with one full hour of non-stop action. Never before has any promoter, amateur or pro, filled a ring with ten females for a tag team contest, let alone fill it with ten dynamic, well built and gorgeous gladiators. Mike referees this donnybrook to a best of three fall finish, counting pins rather than the usual submissions.

Team One Consists of:

1. Blonde Shelly in a red suit.
2. Honey Blonde Stevie in a white net outfit.
3. Tough Leora in a black body suit.
4. Lavender clad newcomer Dorothy.
5. Sepia star Vanessa in an animal skin suit.

Team Two features:

1. Animal-like Leslie with a front laced black suit.
2. Cindy suited in a white French cut outfit.
3. Blonde vixen Pam in a suit of gold.
4. Battling Belinda in a red/blue cover.
5. Long haired Kat in a striped setup.

All we can say is that when so many girls surround the ring, the combatants go all out and we've captured a full hour of the toughest and roughest amateur wrestling ever. Over $3000 was spent to produce this absolute classic of girl grappling. No collection can exist without this tape!

"Barbaric Battles"

Returning to the Golden Girls' mat is Kona the Barbarian who recently destroyed athletic Stevie. Kona in a black top & leopard skin loincloth attacks sweet blonde Kerry in another savage display of animal ferocity. Again making unintelligible grunts and sounds, the black haired savage once again displays incredible fighting ability as she forces Kerry to the mat time after time. Will well built Kerry stop this unknown and aggressive brawler? Then comes an intense bikini bout between bountiful Shelly and the dark haired Russian, Mindy. Attired in a bright red bikini that barely covers her huge bust, blonde haired Shelly attacks the gorgeous Mindy, outfitted in a black and blue two piecer that accentuates her perfect body. This battle rages from apron to ring ropes and first one girl and then the other apply a variety of scissors holds and screaming head locks. The smaller Mindy fights for her life and one pretty maid lies beaten and helpless as this great match ends. The third match on the newest tape pits buxom blonde Pam, in a black and white print bikini against ebony star Vanessa in a white and blue striped bikini. The black girl's taught body is subjected to a terrific onslaught by the aggressive white girl and tender white skin vies with a firm sepia form as this classic confrontation winds down to a decisive finish. Pam has the knowledge and Vanessa the determination as you marvel at this bitter victory. A grand new tape of outstanding wrestling.

Four Frantic Fights
"Newcomers' Nightmare"

Four interesting bouts are included in this new release which introduces two new girls. Blonde Les in a bright blue bikini which does her magnificent body justice battles Lynn-Marie who is wearing soft peach. Lynn-Marie's huge chest and powerful body is exposed to a new hellcat of the ring as the champagne blonde gives it all she's got. Les is quite a woman and this fearfull fight will make you clamor for a rematch. Then we give you about ten minutes of frantic fighting done for our TV special as fabulously figured Sue battles well built Stevie before an audience and the television cameras. With all the spectators around, the two beauties are spurred on to a fierce battle. Then we introduce sweet Sheran, a full figured blonde newcomer who battles dark-haired Jill. Sheran, in blue gropes around the ring at times as you can see that she is inexperienced in the squared circle as black tressed Jill covers her with deft moves and holds. Sheran, though, is a battler and her sometimes clumsy rushes confuse the lean Jill until an unexpected ending flattens one of the fighters. Then a treat for all girl grappling fans occurs as California blonde Robin, in a sleek black swimsuit grapples with white clad Mindy. Both suits are scooped at the top and skinny at the crotch and both spectacular bodies look like they are encased in form fitting paint rather than swimsuits as they furiously fight in a combination of pro holds and just plain female fury. A tape that you must make part of your collection.

"BIG BODIES BATTLE"

Our biggest, toughest girls go to the mat in this rough and tough display of ring female combat. In a pale white bikini, physical fitness nut Spice matches powerful holds with blue bikini'd Terri in a match of our two biggest girls. Terri has definition to her body and determination in her style, as she battles the ring wise Spice in a brutal match. Plenty of scissors holds, flying mares and other devastating holds are applied as power matches power in our ring. Terri's deep tan hides her bruised body as Spice attacks her from every angle. Then Spice dons a faintly striped bikini to battle Leslie, whose blue bikini accentuates those powerful arms and thighs. Athletic and beautiful, these big girls show a real dislike of each other as they do battle from corner to corner, rope to rope and flying across our ring. It is one's day to win and one's day to suffer the humiliation of utter defeat. The third match features Shelly in a striped bikini against curvy Sue. Sue, as usual, is matched against a larger girl and although she gets in her licks is belted around rather severely. An airplane spin befuddles the little blonde and a savage attack by the stomping Shelly soon has Sue in a state of shock, wishing she were somewhere else. If you like our powerful females, this tape is a definite must.

"BANGED UP BODIES"

Four battles, three of them with bouncing bare boobs feature our latest tape. Mindy, in a sexy blue one piece suit takes on fiery Belinda, in a lavender bikini in the opening bout. Mindy's suit exposes a sexy, muscular body, as hellcat Belinda attacks the bigger girl with reckless abandon. One of our great struggles of all time, as these girls fight to extinction. Then comes three topless fights, with busty Kelly in red opening the action with striped suited newcomer, April. April is short on knowledge but long on desire as pure intensity is her only weapon versus the ring veteran, Kelly. Beautiful bare-topped bodies being heaved and thrown from pillar to post. The third match highlights Mindy and Belinda again, only this match took place about four months later, and ended topless. Belinda's yellow and white suit is almost entirely torn from her body by the white bikini'd Mindy. The Russian shows her treachery in every step of the match as it roars to a sensational sexy conclusion. A real bonus to see these two twice on one tape. The last topless battle spotlights our two newest girls, dark haired April in a black and white outfit versus Kerri, our demure blonde in a frilly white suit. Soon bare to the waist, these two try to prove who is the better of our newest Golden Girls in a slam bang topless tussle. A super value of one solid hour of the best female fighting in the world!

“GORGEOUS GLADIATORS”

Our beauties are back for this great one hour tape in the Golden Girls own ring. First, California blonde Robin, in a white one piece garment battles Sue, clad in a revealing yellow and black bikini. The two devastating blondes are almost equal in size and strength as they battle to see who is the best small girl in our group. No love lost here until one blonde stomps the loser into the mat. Then comes a violent topless tussle between Jill, in a blue and white bikini and Belinda, in a red and black sarong. Belinda, who has been working out daily, has built her upper body into an awesome sight. As always, Belinda backs away from no one, and meets the feisty Jill in a battle of perpetual motion. You'll love Belinda's new look and also the finish of this great match. A new girl appears in the third match, as white suited Patti battles honey blonde Robin. Robin's red bikini looks super as she makes a rare appearance in a two-piece suit. Patti is green in the ring but is full of fight as she tries to match the experience of the smaller girl. We won't tell who the winner is but must tell you that the loser demanded a rematch that will be filmed in the near future. A great tape, with one topless match, and plenty of beauty.

"BELTED BREASTS"

By popular demand our battling girls go to the ring in another display of bare boxing brutality, a form of combat that is appealing to more and more of our customers. In the first bout beautiful Belinda in brief blue bikini pants slugs it out with lithe dark haired Jill, attired in red and white bottoms only. These two slug it out all over the Golden Girl's ring and brutal punches are landed to all the most sensitive areas of each girl's bodies. Belinda ends up draping the exhausted dark haired girl's body over the corner of the ring and rattles blow after blow to the tiny fighter's stomach and crotch in an animal display of violence. Jill also displays her feline instincts in battering Belinda until one girl finally prevails. Then Blonde newcomer Kerri, clad only in a lavender and white bottom, dukes it out with old favorite Kelly, attired in light blue. Kelly looks bustier than ever in her return to the ring, and controls the smaller newcomer from the first bell. Kerri has a lot of spirit, and soon takes Kelly to the mat and the two are trading punches while rolling all over the ring floor. Soon the battle reaches a violent crescendo and one fair maiden is through for the day, a beaten and helpless loser. This tape is a must for all you bare boxing enthusiasts.

"RUSSIAN ROULETTE"

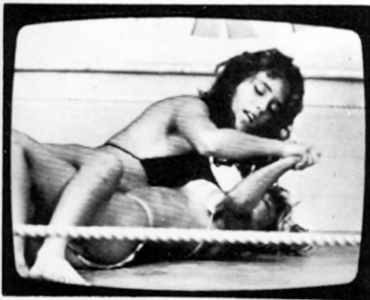

This one hour tape highlights three contests with the second and third ones featuring topless combatants. In the opener, former champion Elsa, in a form fitting (almost) blue bikini wrestles Mindy, the Russian beauty. Mindy wears a red mini bikini and the color matches the fire in her eyes. Choking and hairpulling are the order of the day as these two hellcats destroy one another. The bout ends when one girl grabs a plastic bag and almost snuffs the breath from the loser. The second match features Jill, in a purple and black suit against gorgeous Mindy, in a creamy, ladylike bikini. Soon, the tops are ripped off and the two beauties blast away at each other's assets. Jill is faster than Mindy, and surprises the bigger girl as she confuses her with quick movements. Mindy punishes Jill in a variety of painful holds when she catches up to her, and the end comes quickly and painfully for the whipped loser. The third match pairs Kelly, in a white bikini versus Belinda in a zebra suit. These two violent hellcats hurt one another in every fierce hold as you can feel the violent intensity of their bitter struggle. Soft white flesh is beaten and clawed as each topless amazon tries to batter the other. A helpless loser cries out in pain as this terrific tape concludes three ring catfights.

"BLACK BRUTALITY"

Our new sepi star makes her appearance in this one hour tape along with a new dark haired lovely who'll soon become an all-time favorite. Vanessa is a perfectly proportioned black girl with a classic face and she battles honey blonde Leora in her opening battle. Ebony skin rubs with milky white as dark takes its turn against a light skinned damsel. Vanessa turns out to be a natural street fighter and is evenly matched against the lethal Leora. The match finally ends with a near deathlike choking finish as the loser is vanquished in an almost life ending way. Next Cindy in a red and white striped bikini battles dark haired newcomer, Dorothy. Dorothy is a classic beauty, but what a battler! About halfway through their match Dorothy suddenly is unable to continue and fantastically beautiful black Vanessa enters the squared circle to battle Cindy. Again, fair blonde versus jet black, cat quick Cindy gives Vanessa a lesson only to learn the viciousness of Vanessa's nature. Then a third superb match, as a well stacked favorite, Blonde Pam in a yellow and black bikini battles tough, tiny and terrific Leora. Wow, what a fight as you instantly sense that both girls will not walk out of the ring losers. What determination as first busty Pam and then petite Leora vent their anger on their opponent until one of the girls gives up, showing future revenge in her pain glistened eyes. A dramatic new tape with two sparkling new beauties, one soon to be the new black star of Golden Girls.

"MIXED MEANNESS"

These two mixed handicap matches just shot in the Golden Girl's Gym will leave the mixed match fans breathless. Because pound for pound we feel that most males have more muscle content in their bodies, we decided to match diminutive Mike against two similarly weighted female opponents, allowing the girls to tag-off when necessary. First Mike challenges Shelly and Belinda, both in black and white bikinis. Blonde Shelly's bikini has some ruffles in it and Belinda appears in the briefer costume. Mike bites off more than he can chew as both busty bombshells have had hours of training preparing them for their bout with the Lady Pros. After a slam bang match someone loses part of their outfit. The second match is the same format and puts Mike against Belinda in an aqua bikini and tough Stevie in a white top and red bottom. Mike soon finds he is being overwhelmed and soon rips both girl's bras off. What follows is the sexiest mixed match we've ever filmed. The attempt to embarrass the two gorgeous and well stacked girls backfires, and Mike finds himself distracted, confused and unable to use his wrestling skills. Both beauties use their bountiful bosoms to smother poor Mike and use every female advantage to conquer the male. At times both bare breasted beauties gang up on Mike in a dramatic display of female domination. No doubt it will be two matches which will keep you spellbound time and time again.

“NEW BUST BATTLES”

Two fierce topless tussles highlight this one hour, three match video. First, blonde and suddenly busty Shelly in a blue and black zebra bikini defrocks white bikinied Belinda in our most intense topless match ever. Both big mammariied beauties batter each other with all the hate and determination in their almost bare bones. Sleek busty bodies are stretched and torn as female aggression comes to the fore like never before. Finally one girl is draped helplessly off of the ring apron and her opponent savagely attacks her ample bust, ending the match in a bruising, raw and swollen manner that leaves the loser hurt and helpless. Next Shelly, in a light green suit battles Stevie, in a blue and white bikini. Stevie's gorgeous chest falls victim to our Champion's aggressive style as scissors holds, punching and hair pulling abound in this topless fury. Shelly is surprised by Stevie's skill and the match is mesmerizing until one topless amazon shrieks out her surrender. The third match highlights Belinda, in a lavender and white two piecer. Against Patti, who debuted in GGC-134. You'll see why Belinda, with her aggressive style has become one of the stars of all of amateur fighting as she climbs over the svelte Patti with a variety of holds. Patti is tall and strong and gives movie star quality Belinda a run for her money. Match #1 itself is worth the price of this mostly topless and all terrific tape.

“A NEW CHAMP”

After several months of inactivity, our championship belt came up for grabs in a series of super matches. Elsa, our tiny hellcat, who held the cherished belt was challenged by equally diminutive Sue, our blonde beauty. Sue in a one piece black outfit has learned a lot of wrestling in three years, and although she has been wiped out on numerous occasions, she has learned the ropes. See her surprise the overconfident Latin in an intense battle of little girls. Then Spice, still smarting from her defeat and loss of the belt, thinks Sue will be easy pickings. The powerful Spice, in blue, pulverizes our blonde beauty in as lopsided a match as you can imagine. Sue is tangled on the ropes and begs for mercy as the bigger girl belts her into submission. Then for the battle of the century. Shelly, our big and dominant blonde challenges Spice to a winner take all donnybrook. Spice is adept at all the pro moves and flips the blonde around the ring with her wide variety of holds. Shelly responds the only way she knows how, with kicks and punching and a murderous attack. It turns into a match of skill versus street fighting and ends up with two tired and whipped females. One of them, however, is victorious and probably will keep the belt for a long, long time. A great intense tape!

3 BLONDE BATTLES!

"GOLDEN PERFECTION"

Pam is a perfectly proportioned blonde with a beautiful face and a girl next door look. Certainly she is one of the most striking battlers ever to grace our mat and this tape features her in three hard-fought bouts. After viewing this one you may wish we'd feature her in more, for this gorgeous creature is a fighter, too. First she battles bikini'd Cindy in a match that you will love. Pam wears a white one piece suit, open laced down the front, which makes her look like a Miss U.S.A. These two are real fighters, and hook up in a classic duel of good moves and excruciating action. Cindy is fast and Pam is tough and the action is wild! Then brunette Jill battles yellow bikini'd Pam in a wild scramble. Pam wears the briefest bikini she's wrestled in yet, which shows her ample body off to its greatest advantage. Little Jill attacks the blonde's gorgeous body and a real hellcat match ensues with a very strange but final finish. Then, a battle of our two beautiful blondes follows with Sue, in a light bikini taking on Pam, attired in a blue Striped bikini bottom with matching tank top. Nowhere will you ever see two more beautiful blondes risking permanent damage to their perfect bodies while fighting for real in a ring of wrestling. No need to describe this ultimate fantasy of blonde Amazon destroying blonde Amazon. A new favorite is born in this tape as Pam will excite you with her ferocity and win you over with her pulchritude.

"THE CALIFORNIA DOLLS"

Three hotly contested bikini brawls constitute this brand new tape offering which features three of our prettiest blondes. In the first match Stevie, decked out in a black outfit tangles with curvy blonde Sue in a teeny red swimsuit. Stevie displays a variety of holds on the smaller girl and airplane spins Sue several times in the bout. Sue retaliates with a hairpulling spree that leaves Stevie dazed and confused. A reverse cradle hold ends the violent match with a surprised winner and embittered loser. Next, Sue takes to the mat again with equally stacked and aggressive Pam. Every strain of Sue's perfect body is accentuated in her brief green and yellow striped bikini as she struggles violently to escape Pam's all out attack. Pam works on Sue's legs throughout the bout, drags her to the ropes for a choke or two, and toys with the smaller girl throughout the match. A crushing leg scissors combined with a half nelson spell doom for one damsel. Then Stevie, in a black and white leopard bikini challenges Pam to a match with super wild action. White suited Pam's bronzed body looks like a gorgeous body builder as she starts to devastate the unaware Stevie. Hold after hold is then applied by Stevie in a thoroughly mad attempt to humiliate the other blonde. A screaming head scissors forces one blonde to admit "You're the prettiest" to an angry winner. Definitely three intense bikini battles between beautiful, and sexy gladiators.

"DYNASTY"

This brand new topless tape features a glamorous ring fantasy fight and an exquisite blonde newcomer in a desperate bare bosomed battle. Our "Dynasty" fantasy shows big busted Shelly meeting slim Kim in a dressing room and arguing over a mutual boyfriend named Frank who evidently bought both girls new shoes and Kim a bejeweled anklet. The friction erupts to a wrestling challenge that has both girls moving to the squared circle to settle their differences. Two bombastic babes in expensive furs and silk dresses enter the ring, drop their furs, and collide in dresses and heels. Kim, in a white dress, battles the larger Shelly with all her might and more head scissors are applied than you've seen in a long time. Shelly's gold top is ripped to her waist and her huge breasts are both used as a weapon against Kim and also are punished by the smaller blonde. Finally, one silky creature is battered and beaten and the victor takes the spoils, both Frank and the anklet. Next, a sweet-faced blonde newcomer named Crystal, in a leopard blue bikini faces off with red bikinied and athletic Stevie. In a matter of minutes both girls are left only in their brief bottoms as they viciously wrestle from post to post, and rope to rope. Crystal's delicate body seems no match for Stevie's brazen attack as her trim torso is subjected to the crafty holds learned in hours of fierce combat. But nature gives us all the will to survive, and Crystal seems to explode with fury in a two fisted survival attack. One beauty is laid out flat as a crushing finish ends her dreams of victory. A great new tape for lovers of aggressive beautiful women.

"THE TOUGH ONES"

Three tough semi-pro matches give you the roughest action in all of amateur girl wrestling. Big brazen Shelly enters the ring with the Championship Belt, a fur jacket and a hot pink bikini. Tough girl Belinda, in a blue robe and black bikini thinks it's about time the belt changes hands. These two busty broads clash in an intense display of pro holds, Keester bumps and high flying action, with straining bodies and both leave the ring with bruises and memories of the fiercest fight we've ever taped. But hold on to your hal, guys, because you may see a new champ! Then comes violent and crude Spice, with multi colored bottoms and a blue bra to challenge Golden Cat, slimmer and trimmer in a black and red bikini. Both girls are over 5'9" and have tough, muscled bodies with curves to match them and both have wrestled pro-style for a few years. You'll see moves the Japanese pros would be envious of as these giant gladiators batter and punch their way to a suplex finish. Then comes our fiercest girl, busty Belinda in blue to challenge the Golden Cat in a tough girl contest. Belinda's speed confuses the red bikinied Cat as she swarms all over the larger lass. When Cat does catch Belinda she tries to crush her with her bodyweight and tries to mangle Belinda's firm young body. A shrieking end comes when a cradle hold ends the match. Four of our strongest girls in a combination of skill, science and female aggressiveness.

GOLDEN CAT IN AGONY

GGC-149 — VIDEO CASSETTE 45 MINUTES — "BOOTED BATTLES"

Pro-style matches with boots and wrestling tops feature this new release. Belinda wears white boots and an olympic looking red, white and blue swimsuit to battle Charlie (The Golden Cat). Cat wears an aqua outfit and mean looking black wrestling boots to battle the talented Belinda. Golden Cat is menacing in manner and action as she punches Belinda at will. Her pro-ring experience is evident when she displays a variety of devastating devices to humble our favorite Golden Girl. As the match nears the finish Belinda summons an extra piece of female determination and has Charlie begging for mercy. The match ends with one girl astride the fallen victim, bending her leg beneath her in a bone crushing submission. The second match features Charlie with her boots, a white tank top and black and white bottom dueling with Lynn-Marie in a French cut white one piecer. These two certainly disdain each other and their match is a classic of Pro-style pyrotechnics. Lynn's white suit covers her athletic body like a glove and stretches in every angle as the Savage Cat belts her around the ring. The loser almost loses consciousness as she is trapped in a killer hold. Pro-style and pro holds all the way.

GGC-148 — VIDEO CASSETTE ONE HOUR — "BRAZEN BIKINIS"

Three brief bikiniéd bouts with five glamorous vixens will intoxicate your senses in this over one hour video. First, big busted Shelly pops her top (for a moment) in an all out battle with spicy Leora. Shelly, in a black bikini, tries to dominate the tiny tiger, but Leora shows all of the fight and heart that she displays in every match she's in. Soon Leora has the big girl at a disadvantage and it looks like an upset in the making as a head scissors finish ends this dynamic tussle. Then, Lynn-Marie wearing a striking white bikini battles bountiful Belinda in a tri-hued outfit. Both girls are well trained and the sounds of agony accentuate this fierce struggle. Muscle definition aplenty as each girl stretches, squeezes and smothers her opponent in as good a match as we've ever taped. Belinda next battles the sun goddess, Pam, in an aqua and black stringed outfit which initiates a riotous match between two well endowed and superb Southern California cuties. Belinda, with her pro training certainly is over confident in this one and didn't count on the strength of the Buxom little blonde. Pam pounces on Belinda time after time and has the wildcat grasping for every trick she's learned. Finally, one becomes a damsel in distress and learns that defeat on the mat can be an experience that no girl could even dream about. Three outstanding bouts.

“BUSTY BITCHES”

Three terrific matches highlight this mostly topless tape. In the first bout two of Golden Girl's most sensationally built blondes tangle in a bare to the waist war. If you've fantasized how Kim and Pam would look stripped to a tiny bottom then we've answered your dreams. Kim starts in a leopard bikini and bronzed Pam begins in an erotic black and white fringed two piecer. Perfect breasts are pounded to the mat and straining muscles accentuate the perfect proportions of both athletic but petite blondes. The lens fogging match ends with the loser's head and chest hopelessly draped over the mat's edge. Then follows another sexy match as sweet Sue's lavender top falls prey to Kim's long nails. Kim's tri-color bikini is shredded from her body and the two lithe she-cats battle fearlessly all over the ring. Nipples stand erect as the strenuous excitement of the struggle brings out all the juices in both girls as they claw their way to a screaming end with the winner applying a head and neck crushing scissors. The third bout is a bikini match with “Sweet Savage” Cindy sporting a striped black and yellow bikini doing battle with pink clad Stevie. Both combatants are quick with their moves and vast in their knowledge of holds and counter holds. Flying mares abound in the action and strong legs wreck havoc with bone crushing scissors holds. The action is non-stop until one beautiful battler can stand no more and the other is exhilarated with the feeling of victory. A beautiful tape with beautiful girls.

2 Tag Matches plus Bikini Match

“MEAN AND LEAN”

The first match goes for a half hour to a one fall finish as a six girl tag offers some of the hardest and most intense fighting ever. Each team wears identical bikinis and the blue striped team has small blonde Cindy, our champion Belinda and the Russian beauty Mindy in a violent display of power against a red striped team of our sexy black Vanessa, athletic Stevie and tiny blonde bombshell Leora. Honey blonde Crystal, in a referee striped one piece suit tries to umpire this spirited battle. One half hour of fast paced devastation happens until the two smallest battlers, Leora and Cindy end the match. The loser is flattened and carried to the loser's corner by her two beaten buddies. Next, black meets white, and black and yellow striped bikini'd Vanessa matches holds with our little dynamite blonde Leora. Vanessa, who is a real scrapper, is devastated by the non stop attack of our quickest and most aggressive young fighter. It's a matter of quickness, experience and ability versus size and strength, which our ebony beauty has a lot of. A one leg vicious straddle over the bottom ropes finish off one cookie, but is it chocolate or vanilla? Then comes a rare treat for you. A seven minute segment of a wild eight girl tag, with referee, has been extracted from our to be released national TV Pilot show. Shot with a live audience you'll find Vanessa, Shelly, Sue and Robin battling Leora, Belinda, Stevie and Golden Cat in a high flying bone crushing match before a howling crowd. The poor ref loses control and the ring suddenly is filled with eight clawing wild females. Three matches featuring the most intense wrestling you'll ever see from beautiful California Girls.

Three Matches

"KONA THE BARBARIAN"

Three totally different bikini bouts are included in this brand new release. We introduce to you in match #1, Kona the Barbarian. Kona enters the squared circle with a blonde slavegirl, who prepares her with Kona's bout with Stevie. Kona's magnificent body is encased in chains, plumes and fur, waistbands and jungle garb. The slavegirl removes the accessories one by one and prepares the Barbarian queen to do battle. White bikini Stevie cowers in her corner, not knowing what to expect. The black tressed Kona grunts her Barbarian way through the match, never uttering an intelligible word. The match is savage with biting and kicking and long periods of choking. Huge busts are squeezed and even mouths are ripped apart as Kona, once enraged, resorts to instinct until a crushing head scissors almost kills one woman. You never have seen anyone like Kona! Then Leora, in blue, does battle with Stevie, who wears a violet two piece with leopard top. These two athletic battlers smash heads into ring posts, use keester bumps, airplane spins and intense battling as gorgeous Leora dominates Stevie almost throughout. A sudden move and crushing backbreaker destroys one beauty in a matter of seconds. Then comes two platinum blondes who wrestle in bikinis and high heels. Sue, in black battles red outfitted Crystal in a match almost entirely composed of scissors holds and body punching. One absolutely gorgeous blonde is handcuffed to a ring post and taunted and humiliated by the winner, still wearing her high heels. A variety of special interest bouts on this tape, and you'll find Kona is worth the entire price of this dramatic series of female furiousness.

Three Topless Matches

One Hour —

"GOLDEN GLOBES"

Some of our collectors have waited for four years for this first match of what will become a classic match forever in the annals of female wrestling. The voluptuous queen of Golden Girls, Goldie herself, returns to the ring wars after over a year's absence. Facing the beautiful Sue, in a blue print bikini, Goldie almost falls out of her hot pink bra from the start of this erotic and violent match. Rusty from inactivity, Goldie is pummeled by Sue in the fight's beginning, and Goldie resorts to every dirty trick to reverse the match's flow. The top is ripped off of Goldie's magnificent breasts and a fight for life follows. Tits are mangled, long golden strands of hair are pulled from their roots and savage kicks to the crotch weaken each gorgeous gladiator. Never have we witnessed such a fight where the girls were so intent on destroying each other's femininity. After a bruising, bouncing and brutal twenty minutes, one woman is rendered useless, dragged to the ropes and tied there with her own bra for display, while the haughty winner humiliates her by pulling unmercifully on the loser's unprotected nipples. Next we witness an excellent topless match between our Russian beauty, Mindy, in a white bikini, and pale blue clad Belinda, our current champion. These two perfectly defined and well built beauties clash in a majestic melee of hairpulling, scissors holds and body to body straining in a bout of two evenly sized and athletic girls. The straining finish occurs with a dominant straddle on the loser's chest and face. Then comes a return match between baby doll Crystal, a platinum peach in a hot pink bikini and wide busted Stevie, in blue. As in their original match, Stevie shows her experience by confusing the cute Crystal with many intricate holds, airplane spinning her to the mat and dominating the action. Crystal roars back with a furious determination and evens the battle until a crushing headlock destroys the will of one of these modern day amazons. This tape will be the biggest seller ever, so order it today to assure an early shipment.

Three Pro-Style Bouts

"INTRODUCING A KILLER"

Four professional wrestlers who all appear at L.A.'s Olympic Auditorium are seen in three matches taped exclusively in our Golden Girls' gym. Tall, pretty pros start this tape with a bikini match as the "Golden Cat" in a black bikini battles Debbie, known as "Killer Tomato" in ring circles. Debbie, in a steel grey bikini, is as tall and talented as the Golden Cat and looks formidable with a wild perm of blonde hair. The two giants of the ring trade vicious headlocks and a variety of punishing leg holds and devastating scissors on their way to a startling time-limit finish.

3 BRUTAL BEATINGS

"MASKED DOMINATION"

If domination is your game and you enjoy one girl entirely brutalizing the other, then this tape will become your all-time favorite. First Leslie, in a small eye mask battles tiny Jill, all dressed in a tiny white bikini and sparkling jewelry. Leslie just about murders poor Jill, using Jill's suit and jewelry to choke and humiliate her. Really a one-sided battle all the way. The second match has two voluptuous amazons in ski masks battling to a violent end. The winner, clad in a yellow and blue bikini, is never identified as she unmasks her opponent at the very end, revealing a more buxom Belinda that you've ever seen. The masked winner fights like a vixen, knees the loser in the groin, and then mauls the poor girl's breasts in a savage, never seen before ending. The winner will return soon against another masked opponent who may retaliate for Belinda's loss! The third match is a topless battle between beautiful blonde Sue, of the perfectly shaped bosom and red suited fireball Noel. Noel is so much stronger than the diminutive Sue that she completely dominates the one-sided free-for-all. Noel stretches and shackles the bare breasted blonde into total submission. Again, something new from the leader in female combat.
